

BLAKE HANBY

Co-Owner

Blake Hanby (cell phone: 479-966-5007) has worked in the title and closing industry since 1999. Before that, he was the in-house counsel and real estate manager for National Home Centers, Inc., an Arkansas-based supplier of construction materials.

Blake cites “working alongside our team to help our clients” as the most rewarding aspect of his work.

Blake is a graduate of Springdale High School and earned two degrees from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville: his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing; and his Juris Doctorate. He is a licensed attorney, title agent and is a notary public.

Blake is involved in many professional and civic organizations. He’s a member of the Arkansas Bar Association, Arkansas Land Title Association and the American Land Title Association. He’s also served in leadership roles including Past President of Arkansas Land Title Association and Past President of the Springdale Rotary Club and past chairman of the Springdale Chamber of Commerce.

Blake is married to Beth and the couple has a daughter and a son. When he’s not busy helping customers with their title and closing needs or spending time with his family, Blake enjoys golfing, cycling and traveling.
