

JAMES VAUGHN

Title Agent

James joined the City Title & Closing LLC team in 2012 with nearly a decade of previous experience in the financial sector where he worked in various capacities including mortgage loan underwriting and title insurance policy preparation. He wears many hats at City Title & Closing LLC, but James spends the majority of his time preparing commercial title insurance commitments and policies. He seeks to provide his customers with the utmost confidence in their property transactions by exceeding client expectations and industry standards.

James earned his Bachelors of Science degree from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, with Summa Cum Laude honors. He is a licensed Arkansas Title Agent as well as a current member of the Arkansas Land Title Association.

When not at work, James enjoys traveling, networking, playing his collection of guitars, and weightlifting.
