

JIMMY ADAMSON

Title Agent

Jimmy started at City Title and Closing LLC in the fall of 2012 with 9 years of experience in the industry. He worked for Branson Title and Lenders Title of Baxter Co. He is a licensed Resident Title Agent in the state of Arkansas. A true professional, Jimmy possess the experience and know-how for addressing title issues as soon as they develop.

Jimmy served our country for 4 years in the United States Army. While serving, he received a degree in Communications. Jimmy finds it rewarding to be able to work with “the greatest group of people [he] has ever worked with.”

Jimmy is married to Stephanie and together they have two children, Molly and Ryan. When he isn't at work, Jimmy expresses his creativity by working in his yard. He also finds it rewarding to do work around the house.