

SARA BRADEN

Closing Coordinator

Sara Braden began working in the title and closing industry in 1997 and joined City Title & Closing LLC in 2013. Sara has extensive experience with research and completion of final title policies, which makes her a great asset to the City Title & Closing LLC team.

Sara takes a lot of pride in helping our clients sell and buy homes. She enjoys the entire title and closing process. Her favorite aspect of her job is that she gets to play a small role in helping our clients get their dream home.

When not working, Sara likes to throw herself into crafting or indulging in a good book. She also loves to spend time watching football and baseball. Sara is a graduate of Fayetteville High School and has one child, Kaia.
